Fellowship Between Families

Small Groups Offered for the Spring 2009 Semester

Special Focus: Single-Parenting

Being a single parent is hard work. Being a single parent trying to raise Godly kids is even harder. Together this group will help you face the joys and challenges that every single parent will encounter. You are not alone!

Leader: Tess Lewis

Special Focus: Blended Families

A successful blended family is not a myth. This small group will take blended families on a journey to lasting success - The Promised Land. This group will deal with major blended family issues and will be packed with solid biblical solutions.

Leaders: Richard and Debbie Wooten

Special Focus: Parenting Tots to Teens

Ever wish you could change your child's behavior - fast? With humor and commonsense, parents can learn how to influence their child's attitude, behavior and character - for the better! Join this group as we study the book, "Have a New Kid by Friday" and become a great parent with a great kid!

Leader: Jody Kingston

Special Focus: Married with Children

The best gift you can give a child is two parents who love each other unconditionally. This is easier said than done. Unconditional love is promised at weddings, but rarely practiced in real life. As a result, romantic hopes are often replaced with disappointment. But it doesn't have to be that way. This group will discover "The Love Dare" and learn practical ways to "FIREPROOF" your marriage.

Leader: Josh and Lindsay Schlesinger
